UNION MEETINGS.

First in Series Being Held by Evangelical Churches—Rev. William S. Beard Preaches.

The first of a series of union meetings by the evangelical churches in the city took place in the Gen theatre Sunday evening. The Brotherhood of the Congregational Methodist and Baptist churches are conducting the meetings, which are open to all members of the community. The singing of old-fashioned gospel hymns, and cornet solos by John Leonard, Jr., were a feature of Sunday night's meetings. Rev. William S. Beard of the Congregational church delivered a talk on Preparedness, which was well received by the large number present.

Officials of Methodist Church.
Miss Addie Webster, Mrs. Wesley Moore, Miss Jasper Abramson, F. F. Broadway and Charles Jordan have been chosen stewards of the Methodist church, to all recent members of the church. J. B. Fullerton and W. H. Burlingham have been re-elected trustees for three years, and George H. Hall

Zilpha, wife of Levi Lincoln of Hebron, died at St. Joseph's hospital in this city Saturday morning, of exhaustion, as the result of a fractured leg, sustained some nine weeks ago. CHARITY BALL TONIGHT.
Attractive Features Arranged—Concert Folk Dances and Gavottes.

Tonight the second annual Charity ball to be given in this city will take place in the handsome state armory on Pleasant street, and the social season will be formally opened. Last year's ball was a great success, and the plans for this year's affair are even more elaborate than was the case a year ago. Under the direction of Miss Edith Paschal, some seventy young people have been trained in the execution of folk dances, and will give an exhibition of these just after the concert programme, and before the dance programme starts. During an intermission in the first half of the order of dances an exhibition of the gavotte directoire will be given by Miss Florence Howie and Miss Evelyn Thompson, who have been coached by Professor D. F. Clifford. The sale of boxes has met with success, and the advance sale of tickets has been most successful, so that the ball bids fair to be the last year's best in the number present and in interest.—Adv.

Complete Main Road Contract.
David Ahern, who has been in Maine with his brothers, Henry and William, of the Ahern Construction Co., has returned to this city. The other members of the firm are expected back in a day or so, as the work is now completed. A large number of contracts in Maine calling for the building of many stretches of roads, have been carried to completion by the firm this season.

Faculty Reception.
The faculty of the local normal training school gave their annual reception to the students Friday night in the assembly hall, which was effectively decorated. Helms's orchestra furnished music for the dance programme, which extended to the late hours of the evening. Refreshments were served at the intermission. Those in charge were Misses Sara E. Lewis, Frances J. Cole, Lorraine J. Brown and Jennie E. Denehy.

Football Hop at Storrs Followed Day's Events.
Many from this city went to Connecticut Agricultural college Saturday. The day was a busy one at the college. An inter-class cross-country race was held in the afternoon, as well as a football game, which was well attended. In the evening the annual football hop was held in the armory and was very successful.

Undergoes Operation for Appendicitis.
Mrs. H. E. P. Tiesing of Summit street was operated upon for appendicitis Saturday morning at St. Joseph's hospital, where she had been a patient for several weeks. An aggravated case of appendicitis was found, and Mrs. Tiesing is said to be seriously ill, although her recovery is expected, if no severe complications set in. It was stated at the hospital Sunday afternoon that she was progressing favorably so far.

DANIELSON AND ## DANIELSON

Hearing on Dagenais Application Today—Illustrated Lecture at Congregational Church—Body Found in North Gutsuete Swamp—Town to Have Basketball Team.

John A. Paine is considerably improved after being seriously ill at his home on Broad street.
Lester Shippe made a week end automobile trip to New York.
Ralph S. Young and a party of friends spent Sunday at Oakland beach.

Commissioners to Meet.
The county commissioners will be here this afternoon to hear the remonstrance against granting a license to Ed Dagenais to operate a saloon.

Frank A. Carlson of Worcester was a visitor with friends in Danielson over Sunday.
Nathaniel Smith, who has been connected with hotels in Putnam and Willimantic is now with the Wabbaquasset Inn.

John Horton has been a recent visitor in Boston.
Joachim Christini was a week end visitor in Boston.
John A. Batton has recovered from the brief illness caused by excitement when his fine automobile was destroyed by fire last Tuesday night.

George M. Flynn, who died at East Killingly last week, was a member of the regular army of the United States.

Illustrated Lecture.
David, the Best Loved King in the History of Israel, was the subject of an illustrated lecture by Rev. C. H. Barber at the Congregational church Sunday evening.

Degrees were conferred at a meeting of Highland grange of South Killingly Saturday evening.

Added to their duties some of the clerks in town now find the requirement of sweeping the new paved street every morning.

As a "munition" center Danielson has not taken long to win for itself a place among the great consumers.

As yet the casualty list is not exceedingly heavy, however.

There is any doubt in the minds of many persons that the recently effective law permitting the killing of deer under certain circumstances is going to do away with the necessity of having an open season. Deer are going to be mighty scarce animals in this section in the near future.

Compiling Grand List.
C. B. Hutchins, W. P. Kelley and R. G. Smith, assessors, have begun the work of compiling the grand list from the tax lists that were filed with them prior to November. This work will not be completed for several weeks.

Body Found in Swamp.
North Scituate, across the Rhode Island border, believes it has uncovered another murder mystery by the finding of the body of a man who has been dead in a swamp for some time. There was a bullet wound near the heart, but no weapon was found near the body.

With players of last year's K. H. S. basketball team gathered here for the Thanksgiving recess, the holiday will offer an opportunity for the players to meet the predecessors and show them how much the science of the game has progressed.

Interest in Fire Prevention.
The fires at Wauregan the past week have startled many persons in this vicinity who do not seem to realize that a commendable interest in fire prevention is being shown.

TOWN BASKETBALL TEAM.
To Begin Training at Once—All High School Players.

Danielson is to have a "town" basketball team this winter, and will be probably one of the fastest in the state. It is to be made up of Sidney P. Marland, William Marland, John Marland, William Paine, Paul F. Fawcett, and Mr. Potter. All of these men are fast and experienced players, veterans of many games, and they intend to begin their training at once.

The schedule that is being arranged for them will enable them to meet such teams as Springfield, Eastford, Guards of Worcester, Millbury and other teams in Worcester, Taftville and a number of other Connecticut teams. Every man of the local team has been rated a high grade player and some of them are ranked with the best players in the state.

After they have been hardened to the test of hard and fast playing and have developed their own style, they are certain to make a very formidable aggregation and it will take a good deal of time to beat them. They expect to play throughout the entire season, and, of course, will be seen in action in some home games. Potter was formerly a star of the state ever produced. There is local interest in the academic honors achieved at Brown university by Albert Sanger Fratt of Pomfret. One of the young men well known in this city.

Shot a Deer.
An employee at the Matthew Chase place under the pretense of the new law, shot a deer on the Chase farm.

Peter Bennett of Brewster, N. Y., has purchased the Carl T. Matteson farm at East Thompson.

The firm of Evans Brothers of this city is to establish a branch in Danielson.

The Ladies' Social circle of the Congregational church is to meet with Miss Josie Grosvenor of Fremont street Wednesday.

City Caucus Tonight.
The city caucus of the republicans to name candidates for mayor and alderman-at-large is scheduled for this evening.

There was a dance in Union hall Saturday evening at which the music was by the Beacon Singing orchestra of Webster.

Good progress continues to be made on the new Mary's school residence, which probably will be ready for occupancy about the first of the year.

The unusually fine November weather of Saturday attracted many to the links of the Putnam Country club.

Pomfret May Get in Films.
Beautiful Pomfret street may be used as a setting, it is said, for some high grade motion pictures during the next spring and summer season.

The local residents are especially appealed to one of the men who are selected as ideal for some of the subjects to be worked out.

Double-Header Freight.
An unusual amount of freight is being handled in the local railroad yards these days. It is not uncommon for trains so heavy to come through in some cases even four great locomotives to haul them over the Midland division from East Hartford to the top of Hill Station, where they are taken into Putnam as double-headers.

NIGHT SCHOOL TEACHERS.
Two Already Appointed—Town-Owned Books to Be Utilized.

Lewis F. Battey and Thomas Renshaw have been selected as the first of the teachers for the night school to be opened in the high school building.

Supt. H. W. Files has his arrangements for the opening of the school practically completed. Books which the town owns and which are not in use will be used at the night school. The list of names of those who are to enter indicates that there is lively interest and a sufficient number anxious to improve their education to make a success of it.

Others desire to qualify themselves for admission as citizens and electors.

EX-MAYOR MCGARRY CHOSEN.
Nominated by Democrats—Joseph Lapaine for Alderman-at-Large.

The democratic city caucus nominated ex-Mayor J. J. McGarry as candidate for mayor and Joseph Lapaine as candidate for alderman-at-large. Nominations of the various ward caucuses for aldermen were ratified.

With the party caucuses complete, one of the liveliest city campaigns in years throughout the country, the members of the Danielson Methodist church will observe next Thursday evening as Everybody-at-Prayer-Meeting Night.

A special effort is to be made to have a record attendance here.

Rent-Prayer Ranks Some Property Owners.
The habit of some taxpayers, and of some taxpayers who do not pay their taxes, in making sarcastic comment about voters who "do not own the city" and their back voting on appropriation matters, is becoming more openly resented by many persons upon whom it happens to be sufficiently fortunate as to own assessable property.

Some men who are only rent payers have dared to arrive at that stage of analysis and freethinking, where they have convinced themselves that the taxpayer in the humble home happens to occupy it and it has come to them that he hasn't as much right to vote on appropriations, merely as well as the man in whose name the property is assessed.

Men who own property mortgaged to the limit allowed by law and whose taxes are in arrears may, however, welcome, according to the view of some critics of the "poor" man, but the fellow who does not happen to be listed among the taxpayers, though he be a citizen who spends his income at home, has no right to be admitted to pass upon an appropriation matter without hearing the squeal of the self-appointed censors of what other people do, regardless of the other people's rights.

OBITUARY.
Mrs. Silas Adams.
Minerva P. Adams, 70, wife of Silas Adams, died at her home in Dayville Sunday morning. Mrs. Adams was a native of the town of Killingly and had lived here all her life.

Edward Flynn, 55, died at his home in Elmville, late Friday night. He had been in poor health for a long time. He was a native of Ireland.

Mrs. John Choquette, 61, died at her home in Wauregan Saturday morning. She was the wife of John Choquette and leaves a son, Adolph.

Steady!

Whatever our toil—indoors or out—on big jobs or little: we need patience, tranquil nerves, strength of body and presence of mind.

We need keen appetites and good digestions. We need to keep mouth and throat moist and refreshed, the teeth clean and breath sweet. In other words, we need WRIGLEY'S!

For there's where this wholesome, flavor-lasting, impurity-proof refreshment is worth its weight in gold. Yet it costs but a mite.

is promised. It is understood that the party workers will be successful in everything and the pastor, Rev. Joseph V. E. Belanger, was pleased with the conditions that exist this year promise to make this campaign of more than ordinary interest. The republicans, keeping close tabs on the efforts of the opposition, will work strenuously to retain the advantage and balance of power that they hold in the present city government.

FUNERAL.
Seward Chamberlin.

The body of Seward Chamberlin, who died in Providence, was brought here from that city Saturday for burial in Grove street cemetery. A service conducted at the cemetery chapel by Rev. F. D. Sargent was attended by a number of the well known citizens of Putnam.

Mr. Chamberlin was for years a resident of this city. His father was a contractor and Mr. Chamberlin, as a carpenter, followed construction work for years.

APPRAISER REACHES PUTNAM.
Thomas C. McMahon Securing Railroad Statistics for Interstate Commerce Commission.

Thomas C. McMahon, senior land appraiser, division of valuation, interstate commerce commission, is in this section to make an appraisal of New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad company property. His work will cover the company's lines from Hartford to East Thompson, the last station in Connecticut on the route to Boston, and the line from Southbridge to East Thompson.

Mr. McMahon and his assistants are supplied with blue prints and maps of all of the railroad company's property in the territory which he is covering. Their duty is to place a valuation on all real estate, rolling stock, bridges and other holdings and equipment. In making their appraisal the cooperation and assistance of the local boards of assessors are frequently required.

The appraisal, it is explained, is being made to allow for an accurate capitalization of companies.

Mr. McMahon and his assistants will visit the towns in Windham county through which the line of the railroad runs.

Teacher Training Class Course.
The community teacher training class course, which was commenced last week, and is to be continued every Wednesday evening, already gives promise of being a much needed to Sunday school teachers and workers of the city, and an effort is being made to have as many as possible from the various Sunday schools in town avail themselves of the course.
